

URBAN Marginalised

In 2007, Census estimates India's urban population at

377 Million

25%

2001 census estimated the total urban homeless population at 7,78,599 people.

of the Urban population live in poverty

80%

majority of the poor are concentrated in medium and small towns of the urban poor reside in cities with populations less than one million.

TOTAL SLUM POPULATION

Almost 60% of total urban employed are wage workers, and 67% of the wage workers.

Classified by industry, the largest category for urban employment is non-trade services, which includes transport, domestic workers and waste pickers.

Maharashtra

Andhra Pradesh

Uttar Pradesh

The national urban livelihoods mission. The ministry of housing & urban poverty alleviation has proposed to launch a National Urban Livelihoods Mission in its 12th 5-year plan.

The urban poor face problems of housing and shelter, water, sanitation, health, education, social security and livelihoods along with special needs of vulnerable groups like women, children and aged people.

organizing urban poor in Self Help Groups (SHGs), creating opportunities for skill development leading to market-based employment helping them to set up self-employment ventures by ensuring easy access to credit.